

Welcome

Welcome to Stonnington Library + Information Service

As a member, you can access services and collections from all our four libraries, History Centre and Home Library Service.

Our libraries offer spaces to read, learn, connect, create and relax in.

Join at any of the four libraries or online via stonnington.vic.gov.au/library

To join, you'll need proof of your name and current Victorian address. There is no minimum joining age but if you're under 18 you'll need a parent or guardian's signature.

We acknowledge the Traditional Lands of the Kulin Nations and pay our respect to their Elders past, present and emerging. We extend that respect to all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

Locations and opening hours

Welcome

STONNINGTON LIBRARY
+ INFORMATION SERVICE

Borrowing

Borrow up to 50 items free of charge for three weeks. Items in high demand have two-week loan periods. Renew your items twice if others haven't reserved them. You can do this online, in person or by phone.

You can also reserve up to 30 books that are on loan or available at our other libraries. We'll notify you when your reserved items are available for collection.

If there's an item we don't have, you're welcome to suggest it for purchase.

Return your items to any of our four libraries and via the after-hours return chutes.

Provide us with your email address to receive email reminders before your items are due.

What's on

Connect with writers, artists, makers and each other at our programs and events. Visit our website to discover what's on at our libraries and History Centre. We cater to a range of ages, abilities and interests including

- > Children and families
- > Writers, readers and stories
- > Community and lifestyle
- > Digital learning
- > History
- > Hobbies and discussion

Look out for our annual What's Your Story? Writing competition and [untitled] Literary Festival for inspiring literary experiences.

Collections

Whether it's for fun, recreation or to learn something new, we have an extensive range of print, physical and digital collections.

- > Fiction, non-fiction, biography, graphic novels, local and family history, movies, music, magazines and newspapers
- > Books in print, large print and audio formats, CDs and DVDs
- > Collections in Chinese, French, Greek, Italian and Russian, and
- > An extensive eLibrary including eBooks, eAudiobooks, streaming services and eReference.

There's something for all ages and interests.

Visit our website and view our catalogue to see what you can find.

Home Library Service

We deliver items to community members who are unable to visit our libraries.

If you or someone you know can't visit our libraries (due to age, disability, illness or injury) and would like to access our home library service, please contact us at homelibrary@stonnington.vic.gov.au or 8290 8011.

Access

We're committed to being accessible so everyone can enjoy our libraries. Our libraries have:

- > ramp access and lifts
- > communication aids, hearing loops and some adaptive technology
- > collections in large print and audio formats.

The Community Transport Service is available to eligible residents to assist getting to the Library. For more information, visit stonnington.vic.gov.au/services/aged-care/community-transport or contact agedanddiversity@stonnington.vic.gov.au or 8290 3224.

Conditions of use

On joining the library you agree to:

- > present your library card each time you borrow
- > accept responsibility for all items borrowed on your library card until returned and processed by us
- > as a guarantor, accept responsibility for the choice of items borrowed and for use made of the internet and video games by persons under 18
- > pay replacement and processing costs for items lost, destroyed or damaged while on loan, apart from damage by reasonable wear and tear
- > notify us immediately if your library card is lost or stolen
- > notify us of any change in your personal details, such as name and/or address, and
- > abide by City of Stonnington Local Laws 2018.

View Council's Information Privacy Policy, and how any changes may be made to your personal details, at stonnington.vic.gov.au/System-Pages/City-of-Stonnington-Information-Privacy-Policy.
